Business Etiquette Expert

Margaret's genuine interest in etiquette and protocol began at a young age. From an unforgettable dining experience in First Grade, where she was told by her older brother to be on her best behaviour, an unforeseen mishap took place. What Margaret thought was a bowl of grapes turned out to be olives – which Margaret's five-year old self did not fancy. With no idea what to do with herself, or the olive in her mouth, and too scared of embarrassing her older brother, Margaret resorted to graciously removing the olive into a napkin. The very next day, Margaret saved her pennies to purchase dining etiquette books.

Margaret's appreciation for the highest standards of etiquette and protocol heightened as she transitioned into an entrepreneur. Offering business etiquette and international protocol services, Margaret inspires her clients, giving them the essential skills and confidence required to handle any situation with style and finesse.
